

Community Site Access Instructions

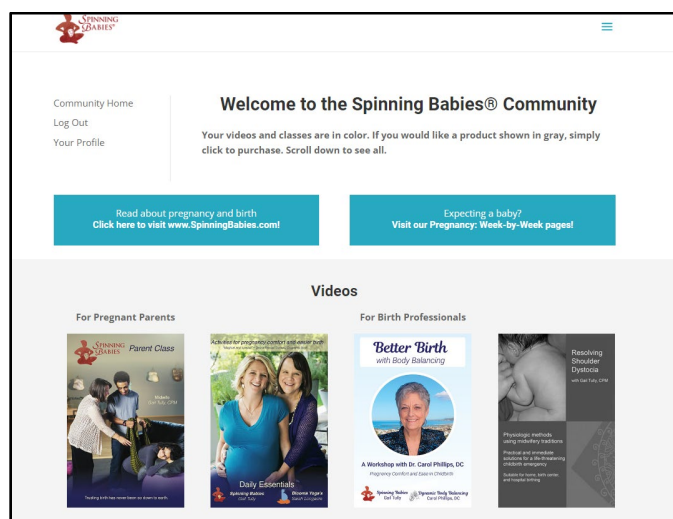

Access Video Email: You will receive an email to access your community site log in with your credentials.

Website: This website is going to be different than a log in on the spinningbabies.com and will be provided in the email to access your video. Please click here to access the Community Site.

Log In View: When logging into the community site page you will see videos available. The videos in color are the ones you have purchased and are available to watch at any time. Any video that is grayed out will be unavailable to you until it has been purchased.

FAQ:

- Website: <https://community.spinningbabies.com/>
- Need Help? If you are having trouble with logging in please contact info@spinningbabies.com for assistance.
- Getting an error message? If you are getting a log in error or your purchased video is not allowing you to view you can try to clear your cookies and cache or use a different browser.